

Recent changes in the FOX Network's contracts with their local stations have resulted in WVUE FOX 8 in New Orleans being eliminated from some of Cable One's subscribers. It also resulted in WXXV FOX 25 being eliminated from some of the cable and satellite systems in the Hattiesburg/Laurel Market that it had been serving and supporting for 25 years. This was not a cable or satellite decision. It is strictly with the FOX Network and their agreements. WXXV FOX 25 has also been the local FOX affiliate in the Biloxi/Gulfport/Pascagoula Market for 25 years. We have supported local events, local charities, local schools, local students, local foundations, local fund raisers and everything local you can imagine. And will continue to do so. We will also continue supporting our local viewers and advertisers. Our employees and their families belong to local organizations and are involved in the local communities. We shop and buy locally.

WXXV FOX 25 airs every FOX Network program at the same time that WVUE airs. You can also view these programs in full High Definition on Cable One Channel 475. And any of our syndicated programs offered in HD airs in HD. Most of the non-news programming that WVUE airs also airs at slightly different times on WXXV FOX 25 or our sister station MyXXV2 as seen on Cable One Channel 18 across the Coast. We provide a strong and diverse program line-up between WXXV FOX 25 and MyXXV2 in addition to the strongest year-round line-up of sports. We air 8 of the top 10 and 18 of the top 25 syndicated shows on our stations. Below is a comparison of programs and air times on the stations.
